

Real Estate Department PhD Program Policy on Sixth Years

“The dissertation committee chair of a fifth year real estate PhD student needs to make a formal request in letter for sixth-year funding to the department PhD coordinator and the department chair by September 30th of the fall semester of the student’s fifth year. The department chair will evaluate the request, in consultation with the real estate faculty, and make a decision.”