

Supply Chain and Information Systems
Department PhD Program Policy on Sixth Years

“The dissertation committee chair of a fifth year PhD student must make a formal request in writing for sixth-year funding to the department PhD coordinator and the department chair by September 30th of the fall semester of the student’s fifth year. The department chair will evaluate the request, in consultation with the PhD coordinator, and make a decision on whether to grant the request.”